LOCAL NEWS.

Brief Mention.

High water to-day at 11:47 a. m.
Buy a new house—R. E. Baldwin.
One thing is certain. Royal shoes do wear well; latest styles; save 1¢.

Mrs. Harry S. Jarrett of Waterbury, Conn., is spending a week in this city visiting friends.

If you want a new wringer or one repaired, call on the manufacturers, the American Wringer company, 499 State street.

At the Church of the Messiah to-morrow the subjects are: 10:30 a. m., "A Church Up to Date"; 7:30 p. m. Egypt illustrated.

Mr. George M. Cameron, manager of the Aldrich house, and Mr. Charles A.
Johnson left yesterday morning for Providence on a bicycle trip to be gone several days.

The pool match that was announced to occur last evening at M. Mann's cafe on Orange street between Eby, champion of the United States, and J. Wallace did not take place.

The Columbian Guard will meet at the Reynolds School of Elocution at two o'clock to-day to rehearse for the presentation of their memorial entertainment at the Grand opera house on the evening of May 29.

Thomas J. Gill, aged fifty-two, a Tenth Connecticut Volunteer veteran, died yesterday at Hartford. He was a past commander of R. O. Tyler post, G. A. R., and was twenty-eight years a clerk for the Aetna Life Insurance company.

Charles D. Ailing, aged sixty-one, of Waterbury, a war veteran, who served in Company B, First Connecticut Heavy Artillery, died Thursday night at the home of his brother in Ansonia. New Haven Commandery will attend the funeral Sunday.

The Foot Guard are all busy holding ment on June 6, 7 and 8. The tickets will be on sale by the members this morning. Mr. O. Perli was present last evening and took charge of the results. The prices of tickets will be $1, 75 cents and 50 cents.

They all say they are fine, those nobby straw hats of the famous Knox make; sold only by the Burgess Fur & Hat Co. The ladies say the Knox sailor straw hats sold only by the same firm are just lovely. They are immensely popular and fashionable.

The Plainville camp grounds will be put in condition for camp meeting next Wednesday, when the members of the New Haven district will meet there with shovels, hoes, rakes and crowbars to clean up the accumulation of rubbish from last year. These annual rally days are very pleasant.

Mrs. Lottie Reynolds and W. Manning Reynolds of Reynolds School of Elocution will give a recital at Warner hall on Wednesday evening, June 5.
Extensive and elaborate preparations are being made for it, and all indication point to a highly successful and brilliant evening's entertainment.

The many friends of Mr. Samuel Borst will sympathize with him in his sad loss, his wife having died yesterday morning. She was a beloved wife and mother and many friends will mourn her death. She leaves a babe about two weeks old and one other child, aged about seven years. Mr. Borst is lieutenant at steamer 2's house. He lost a son about a year ago. The funeral takes place on Sunday at 3 p. m. from 45 Edward street. Mrs. Borst was about thirty years of age.

Notice to the Public.

We will inaugurate next week an American sale and display in our windows, goods made in American factories by American workmen. Our object in doing this is to uphold the dignity of the American workman and the good name of American made goods. Many goods are sold purporting to be imported and even stamped with the European custom. Such methods are misleading to the people and injurious to the good name and superior work of our workmen.
It is high time that our factories and our men be upheld by the merchants throughout the country. In doing this we are following the footsteps of Shepard, Norwell & Co., Boston, who deserve credit for first introducing the subject to the people.

New Haven, Conn.

HAS RETURNED TO NEW HAVEN.

Millus Frank's New store at 780 Chapel
Street.

The new store which has been opened by Millus Frank at 780 Chapel street is thronged with customers every day, and Mr. Frank seems to have jumped right back into the prosperous business which he left here ten years ago. The new establishment is appointed throughout in an elegant and modern manner, and makes a most attractive place for purchasers and shoppers to visit. The store has only been open a little over a week, its doors having opened to the public on Thursday, May 16.

Mr. Frank was in business in this city for many years, conducting a dry goods store at 843 Chapel street, where Ballerstein now is. Mr. Frank still owns the block which he built. Baller-stein has a long lease of it, and on that account Mr. Frank has opened his store at 780 Chapel street. He was obliged to leave his business in New Haven ten years ago on account of ill health. He went to Europe for a few months, and when he returned he went into the manufacturing business in Brooklyn, N. Y., manufacturing ladies' muslin underwear. He has now sold out his entire business there, and proposes to make his home for the future here in this city. He has brought with him a large stock of ladies' muslin underwear, infants' underwear, caps, coats, cloaks and sacques, and gentlemen's furnishing goods. He also has a very large stock of corsets, both domestic and foreign makes.

Mr. Frank has been greeted by a large number of his old friends, among whom he always had a reputation for honesty and square dealing. He is residing at 119 Greene street.

IN THE ANNEX.

Death of Mrs. Emma E. Grover.
Mrs. Emma E. Grover, wife of Chester Grover, who is a foreman in the repairing department of the Consolidated road shops, died yesterday at her home, 63 Forbes avenue, in the annex, aged twenty years. She had been sick with quick consumption for about seven months. She was the daughter of Mrs.
Mary Palmer, who died in December, 1887. Mrs. Grover had been married about two years. She had been in poor health since a year ago last April, when she gave birth to her first child. She leaves a brother, Humboldt Palmer, who is in the United States navy and is at present at Nicaragua, also another brother, Herman Palmer. She also leaves a sister, Dora Palmer, who lives with Mrs. Allen at 77 Hamilton street. She was an active member of Davenport church. She was attended in her illness by Dr. Henry F. Klenke.
Her funeral will be held at her home, 63 Forbes avenue, to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.
